ARRIVE AT KIPPEWA

Complimentary transportation from NY and Boston areas to Camp Kippewa. Arrive at camp and settle into our brand new LIT bunk.

Tour camp and reconnect with staff and campers from last summer. Meet with Ginger and Steve to discuss goals of the program and plans for the first two days.

LEADERSHIP TRAINING

Preparatory leadership training by Kippewa staff while reliving Kippewa memories.

LIT specific training sessions led by Steve, Ginger, and other members of our leadership staff.

Start thinking about and observing in program areas you want to help teach. Learn about looking at camp from a staff perspective.

TRIP BEGINS!

Depart from camp with your Kippewa LIT director and fellow LITs, meeting the Cobbossee CITs and trip leader at the airport. From there, the entire group will fly to Albuquerque, New Mexico.

EXPLORING

The LITs, with Camp Cobbossee's CITs, will travel to the American Southwest for adventure, cultural education, community service and leadership development. The trip will be supervised by our LIT director Steph Callen, and Cobbossee's CIT director.

The trip program is designed to keep leadership training and Kippewa's culture at the forefront.

MAP IT OUT

TAOS, NEW MEXICO

Upon arrival, drive in our private shuttle to our first destination, Taos New Mexico. Prepare for volunteering and traveling in this unique part of the country along with with more LIT training. The first full day of the trip will be spent white water rafting down class III and IV rapids on the Rio Grande!

GIVE BACK

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Spend 4 days working on a community service project. Integrated throughout the trip will also be leadership development activities that will build on the training's started at Kippewa. LITs can expect to complete a minimum of 30+ hours of service.

SANTE FE, NEW MEXICO

Travel to Sante Fe for a day of exploration. Spend the morning hiking Bandelier National Monument, through a sweeping canyon to a ruin of the Ancestral Pueblo people.

Spend the afternoon exploring downtown Sante Fe including visiting the Georgia O'Keefe museum.

ALBUQUERQUE, NEW MEXICO

Visit Albuquerque, New Mexico's largest city. After arriving, head to the famous Sandia Tram for an unforgettable view of the surrounding area.

Continue to the Indian Pueblo Cultural Center to learn more about the Pueblo people and see some of their traditions in action.

More adventure awaits with a White Water Rafting trip to Taos, and the next day enjoy the famous Santa Fe art fair before flying out to Nevada.

ZION NATIONAL PARK

Explore the magnificent splendor of Utah's most visited national park.

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA

The final day with Cobbossee will be out of Las Vegas. In the morning the LITs will explore the Hoover Dam! Followed by an afternoon of kayaking on Lake Mead. They'll cap it all off with a Cirque du Soleil show before heading to California the following morning.

SANTA MONICA AND CATALINA ISLAND

It's time for our LITs to make their way to the coast. First stop - the beach! Then off to Casa Romantica Botanical Garden and Cultural Center to learn all about the area and its history.

The following morning, take the ferry over to the one-of-a kind Catalina Island, hopefully with dolphin sightings along the way! Explore the quaint town of Avalon and enjoy a zip line eco tour to see all the beauty the island has to offer!

We will stay in San Clemente, getting a taste of California's natural beauty in this quiet & charming beach town, before heading to Los Angeles to finish off the trip at the beautiful Santa Monica pier!

RETURN TO CAMP

Leaders in action

Upon their return, the LITs will jump into life at camp. They'll be paired up with cabins and program areas, ready to put their new leadership skills into action.

They will join cabins for rest hours, mealtimes, evening activities, and more. The bonds created with campers are unbelievably strong and powerful. LITs will also help teach in a specifically selected activity area (or areas), learning teaching skills from our experienced staff.
